3. Failure to evacuate a University building, facility or On-Campus housing facility/unit when a fire alarm is sounded.
4. Action(s) which cause or attempt to cause a fire or explosion.

(i) Hazing
1. Any group or individual action or activity that inflicts or intends to inflict physical or mental harm or discomfort or which may demean, disgrace, or degrade any person, regardless of location, intent, or consent of participant(s). Although hazing is typically related to a person’s initiation or membership in a University organization, it need not be necessary to have direct proof that a person’s initiation or continued membership is contingent upon participation in the activity for a charge of hazing to be upheld. The actions of either active or associate members (pledges) of an organization may be considered hazing. Hazing includes, but is not limited to:
   - Interference with a Student’s academic performance
   - Forced consumption of any food, alcohol, controlled substances, drugs, or any other substance
   - Forced physical activity
   - Deprivation of food or sleep
   - Kidnapping, including restricting a person to move about in a free and lawful manner
   - Physical abuse of any nature, including physical discomfort
   - Performing personal chores or errands
   - Verbal abuse or degradation, including yelling or demands
   - Assigning or endorsing pranks (e.g., stealing, harassing other organizations, defacing property, etc.)
   - Any action or threatened action that would subject the individual to embarrassment, humiliation or mental distress, including the use of demeaning names
   - Any other acts or attempted acts which would constitute hazing pursuant to Section 1006.63 of the Florida Statutes.

(j) Littering
1. Dispersing litter in any form on University grounds or facilities, including but not limited to: cigarette butts, flyers, cans, bottles, etc.

(k) Personal Abuse
1. Verbal or written abuse, threats, intimidation, and/or coercion that objectively endangers the health, safety, or well-being of others. Frightening words or statements which reasonably endanger the health and safety of any person are not protected speech and may result in University action. This definition shall not be interpreted to abridge the right of any member of the University community to freedom of expression protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution and any other applicable law.
2. Conduct directed at any person, including a Member of the University Community, which is intended to cause fear, distress, or intimidation and would cause
