Celeste Food Truck is bringing some truly exotic eats. Here, you're getting a menu full of eats from Uruguay and Argentina, made using traditional preparation methods and recipes with imported spices and seasonings to add to that full bodied flavor.

At Celeste Food Truck, they're committed to using the highest quality ingredients, too, making for food that's as fresh as it is delicious. Our specialty is in Chivitos, which look like sandwiches but are so much more than that. Stuffed with the likes of beef loin, ham, mozzarella, and bacon dressed with sweet peppers, olives and mayo, you've gotta take hold of 'em with both hands to chow down. But that's not all. Celeste Food Truck rounds out their offerings with crispy breaded beef and chicken milanesas, brochettes, choripan and honestly too much goodness to list out here. You'll just have to find Celeste Food Truck to try it all, or have 'em bring it all to your next event. Either way, this is one foodie experience you don't want to miss.
